

College of Saint Mary in Omaha, NE seeks candidates for the position of Biology Faculty to begin January or August 2019. The successful candidate will be responsible to teach 24 credit hours per academic year primarily in anatomy and physiology and pathophysiology courses. He/she will participate in the development of policies, curriculum, and assessment of the program, as well as supervising undergraduate research, advising students, and serving on departmental and university committees. Candidates must possess a Ph.D. or equivalent terminal degree in biology or related field.

College of Saint Mary is minutes from a thriving downtown that boasts ample opportunities to experience art, theater, music, cultural events, beautiful gardens and a world-renowned zoo.

Application:

Please apply using the following link. Please have a letter of application, current curriculum vitae and contact information for three professional references ready to upload during the application process.

Biology Faculty Application

A background check (including a criminal records check) must be completed satisfactorily before any candidate can be offered a position with the CSM. Finalists will also be required to submit official transcripts. Review of applications will continue until the position is filled.

College of Saint Mary is a Catholic university providing access to education for women in an environment that calls forth potential and fosters leadership. The University is an equal employment opportunity employer and does not discriminate against employees or job applicants on the basis of race, religion, color, sex, sexual orientation, gender identity, pregnancy, age, national origin, disability, veteran status, marital status or any other status or condition protected by applicable laws, except where a bona fide occupational qualification applies.