

College of Saint Mary invites applications for a full-time faculty position beginning August 2018. The Occupational Therapy Program at the College of Saint Mary is a combined Bachelor/Master program with a curriculum design congruent with the Mercy Mission. The program is in the initial phases of transitioning from a master to an entry-level doctorate degree. Join a talented team of faculty that is committed to providing teaching and learning experiences using best practices and contributing to the profession through service and scholarship. Come and be part of creating a dynamic OTD from the ground up.

Qualifications: Three years paid clinical experience is required. Background in mental health, leadership and management, or research is desired. A doctoral degree is required. Applicant must be a licensed occupational therapist or be eligible for licensure in Nebraska but will consider other professionals such as physical therapy, psychology, or other health care fields that understand occupational therapy practice.

Responsibilities: Responsibilities include teaching in a variety of areas during the transition from master to doctoral degree, as well as academic advising, committee work, service, and scholarly pursuits.

College of Saint Mary is minutes from a thriving downtown that boasts ample opportunities to experience art, theater, music, cultural events, beautiful gardens and a world-renowned zoo.
