The College of Saint Mary (CSM) invites applications and nominations for the position Vice President for Academic Affairs. The only women’s college in a five-state Midwestern region, CSM is situated on 40 acres in south central Omaha, Nebraska. CSM is guided by its mission, to provide access to education for women in an environment that calls forth potential and fosters leadership and by its commitment to the values, works and aspirations of the Sisters of Mercy. The new Vice President is expected to take office in the summer of 2016.

As the College’s chief academic officer, the Vice President for Academic Affairs reports directly to President Maryanne Stevens. The VPAA works with the academic deans and division chairs to provide leadership for all undergraduate and graduate academic divisions.

The successful candidate will have the following qualifications:

- Possess an earned doctorate.
- Support the Catholic identity and mission of the College as a women’s college.
- Be an innovative and strategic academic leader who understands the challenges of small private colleges in maintaining quality academic programs that are responsive to the marketplace.
- Ability to foster teaching and inspire scholarly excellence and creativity.
- Administrative experience in higher education preferred.
