As a nationally recognized university, College of Saint Mary will be known for academic excellence, a values based education, and for developing the unique potential of women, preparing them for full participation and leadership in a global society.

Academic Excellence

CSM will emphasize the development of a culture of academic excellence. Our graduates will be sought after because their rigorous education will provide them with preparation for full participation in a global society.

Values Integration

As a Catholic institution affiliated with the Sisters of Mercy, CSM will embrace a culture that recognizes the values, works and aspirations of the Sisters of Mercy as its underlying foundation.

New Programs/New Revenue

CSM will consistently scan the market for new sources of revenue through expanding market reach, the development of new programs or alternative delivery systems for already established programs.

Fundraising/Development

CSM will implement and embrace a resource development environment that invests in quality, focuses on growth-oriented philanthropic support, and ensures best practices in investing and sustainability.
Recognition

We will solidify and enhance College of Saint Mary’s regional reputation for academic excellence and mission-driven programs.

Women’s Leadership

As a community dedicated to the education of women in an environment that calls forth potential and fosters leadership in a global society, College of Saint Mary will provide its students with service learning and leadership development opportunities. Additionally, College of Saint Mary’s Center for Women in Leadership will be a gathering place creating synergy between individuals and organizations whose desire is to address societal concerns with the power of women’s unique strengths and perspectives.
