Two Special Events – One Special Evening

Mercy Day Vespers & Prayer Circle Dedication

Our annual prayerful remembrance of the anniversary of the first House of Mercy established in Dublin in 1831, is enriched by a dedication for our new place of prayer & reflection on campus. We will also have special recognition for those individuals who helped make the Crucifix and Prayer Circle a reality.

Thursday, Sept. 23, 4:45 p.m.
Prayer Circle

Saint John’s Bible Reception & Exhibition

Bring family & friends to a special unveiling of the first four volumes of The Saint John’s Bible Heritage Edition – a meticulously handcrafted, illuminated Bible, which is now part of CSM’s treasured library collection. A representative from The Saint John’s Bible will be present to bring elements of these remarkable works to life.

Thursday, Sept. 23, 5:30 p.m.
Mercy Hall Meeting Room

* The first created since the advent of the printing press more than 500 years ago!
