Omaha, NE - College of Saint Mary invites you to celebrate Irish music with a performance by world-renowned folk singer Aoife Clancy. Please join us on Friday, February 24 at 7:30 p.m. in the Mercy Hall Dining Room to hear the former lead singer of Cherish the Ladies perform a range of traditional Irish songs, ballads and contemporary folk music. Tickets are $20 each; please contact Irish Heritage Co-chair, Diane Proulx at 402-399-2456 or dproulx@csm.edu by Feb. 20.

Aoife Clancy Bio -- Aoife comes from the small town of Carrick-on-Suir, in Co Tipperary, Ireland, where her musical career began at an early age. Her father Bobby Clancy of the legendary Clancy Brothers, placed a guitar in her hands at age ten, and by age fourteen was playing with her father in nearby pubs. Aoife was part of the acclaimed group "Cherish the Ladies", which is one of the most sought-after Irish American groups in history. For the past four years Aoife has toured extensively doing no less than two hundred dates a year throughout the United States and Europe.

College of Saint Mary, founded in Omaha in 1923, is the region's only Catholic college for women. With approximately 1,000 students, CSM is dedicated to the education of women in an environment that calls forth potential and fosters leadership. For more information on CSM, visit CSM.edu.
