Assistant Dean of Students

College of Saint Mary (CSM) invites applications for the position of Assistant Dean of Students. CSM seeks an engaging and attentive student development professional to join the thriving and student-centered Student Development and Success team to serve as the second senior officer responsible for the direction of student development and community life at College of Saint Mary. This individual reports to the Vice President for Student Development and Success.

CSM is a private, all-women's college of approximately 1,100 students, committed to the development of students through excellent academics that combine professional and career preparation with the liberal arts. CSM is located in Omaha, a growing city with a metropolitan area population of 850,000 and is located within walking distance of the thriving Aksarben shopping area which also features a movie theatre, a wide-variety of restaurants, a farmer's market and summer concert series. This position offers the best of both worlds – the opportunity to make an immediate impact working in a smaller, mission-focused and personalized environment and community, while living in a large, thriving metropolitan city!

Responsibilities

The Assistant Dean of Students provides oversight to several departments, including Student Leadership and Organizations, Residence Life, Campus Ministry and Single Parent Success, and advises our Student Senate.

Education and Experience

- Master's Degree required in college student personnel, counseling or related field with 8-10 years of related experience.
- Residence Life experience strongly preferred, as is Doctorate or ABD status.
- Experience with college age and diverse populations is required.

Application

Please apply using the following link. Please have a resume, cover letter and three professional references, including a minimum of one supervisor, ready to upload during the application process. Applications accepted until position is filled. Optimal start date in June 2020.
