

Business Faculty

College of Saint Mary seeks full-time Business faculty starting either January 3, 2020, or August 1, 2020. The successful candidate will teach undergraduate courses in more than one area of the Business curriculum, which offers courses in accounting, e-commerce, finance, business analytics, international business, communication, marketing, human resources management, and leadership. The successful candidate also will be responsible for advising students and fulfilling other duties as assigned or as specified in the Faculty Handbook. The successful candidate reports directly to the Associate Dean for the Division of Arts, Sciences, and Professional Studies. This is a 10-month faculty appointment.

CSM's Business Program offers students ample focus on business analytics and communication, two areas in which graduates thrive as they develop critical thinking skills throughout the program. Additionally, CSM's Business program requires more internships than other regional institutions, a distinction that has led to successful career opportunities.

REQUIRED QUALIFICATIONS: The successful candidate must hold an earned doctorate in Business or a related field or a DBA from a regionally accredited institution; must be eligible for appointment at the rank of Assistant Professor, Associate Professor, or Full Professor; and must have relevant teaching experience.

PREFERRED QUALIFICATIONS: Knowledge and experience with accreditation standards and processes, specifically with the International Assembly for Collegiate Business Education (IACBE), are preferred.

PRIMARY DUTIES: The successful candidate will teach twelve (12) credit hours each semester (24 per academic year) and advise students. The successful candidate will fulfill faculty responsibilities as assigned or as specified in the Faculty Handbook.

APPLICATION: Please apply using the following link. During the application process, please be prepared to upload a letter of application, current curriculum vitae, and current contact information for three professional references.
