Director: Office of Spirituality, Service, and Social Justice

Are you looking for a position where you are responsible for overseeing spiritual development, liturgical, and service opportunities for students? If so, you might be a perfect fit for this position. The Director plays an integral role in developing a positive and involved campus community to promote student persistence and success.

Our Idea of a Perfect Candidate Is Someone Who Has:

- Knowledge of Catholic teachings, theology, social teachings, and practices
- Knowledge of social justice and justice advocacy
- Knowledge of young adult and adult faith and spiritual development
- Sensitivity to issues of women's spirituality and commitment to developing women as leaders

Our Ideal Candidate's Education and Experience Include:

- Master's degree strongly preferred in Pastoral Ministry, Divinity, Theology, or related field
- At least two years of experience in Catholic campus ministry, parish youth, or young adult ministry, with experience on a college campus preferred

This Position:

- Serves as leader in developing programming to foster spiritual reflection and faith development, a commitment to service, and an orientation towards social justice.
- Creates and facilitates opportunities for students, faculty and staff to deepen their understanding of and engagement in Catholic Social Teaching and the Sisters of Mercy Critical Concerns.
- Develops a peer ministry team of students to facilitate small faith-sharing groups for students
- Coordinates and facilitates the alternative break trip program.
- Serves as an advisor to the Campus Ministry service club; chairs the Spirit of Service Committee.
- Plans justice advocacy events for the campus in coordination with the Office for Civic Engagement.
- Plan and facilitate campus activities for Mercy Week.
- Coordinates with local priests to host Mass on weekdays and Sunday

Why You Want to Be on This Team:

- You will have the opportunity to work with other staff/faculty, in their expertise, as a Mission-centered team.
- You would enjoy full-time benefits including health insurance, paid time off, tuition remission programs, 403(b) with employer match, employee wellness time, and more!
- CSM is committed to supporting the work-life balance of its faculty and staff.

Application

Please have a resume, cover letter, and contact information for three professional references, including one supervisor, ready to upload during the application process. The review of applications will begin in early February.
