

College of Saint Mary strives to create a safe, inclusive educational environment where every person's worth and dignity are valued and nurtured. Applicants representing diverse backgrounds and experiences are highly encouraged to apply.

Generalist DPT Faculty

College of Saint Mary is currently inviting applications for a full-time 12-month non-tenured faculty appointment at the Assistant or Associate Professor rank to teach generalist content (pathophysiology, pharmacology, integumentary, telehealth) in the blended learning Doctor of Physical Therapy (DPT) Program in Omaha, NE. This DPT program is completed in 2.5 years and uses a combination of online and face-to-face learning experiences to educate future practitioners. The blended learning model allows faculty and students to live remotely from campus. However, DPT faculty must travel to Omaha for designated periods each semester.

Primary Responsibilities Include:

- Developing and teaching content for pathophysiology, pharmacology, integumentary, telehealth, business, and leadership courses
- Participating in faculty-led student research projects, assist with mentoring in related areas of expertise within the CSM DPT Clinical Education Program, and serving as a clinical instructor in the integrated clinical education experiences
- Developing and sustaining an independent research agenda

Our Ideal Candidate's Education and Experience Include:

- Graduate of an accredited physical therapist education program
- A terminal academic degree (PhD, EdD, DHS)C
- Should be licensed or eligible for physical therapy licensure in Nebraska
- Member of the American Physical Therapy Association
- Prior teaching experience in a physical therapist education program
- Knowledge of educational management and adult teaching and learning theories and principles
- Previous teaching experience in distance education preferred
- Able to work with students with special needs based on the Americans with Disabilities Act
- Minimum of 5 years of experience as a licensed physical therapist
- Graduate of an accredited residency program preferred

Application:

CSM is committed to building a diverse educational environment. During the application process, please be prepared to upload a letter of application, current curriculum vitae, statement of teaching philosophy (including information on ways in which your inclusive pedagogy contributes to building and supporting diverse communities), and current contact information for three professional references.
