Occupational Therapy Faculty

College of Saint Mary invites applications for three full-time teaching faculty positions beginning August 2020. One of these positions will assist with fieldwork responsibilities half-time. The new entry-level Occupational Therapy Doctorate Program at the College of Saint Mary has a comprehensive curriculum design congruent with the Mercy Mission. Join a talented team of faculty that is committed to providing teaching and learning experiences using best practices and contributing to the profession through service and scholarship.

Qualifications:

At least three years paid clinical experience. Applicants must be currently licensed or eligible for licensure in the state of Nebraska. Occupational therapists or physical therapists will be considered. Open to various clinical experiences and backgrounds. EdD or PhD preferred, but post-professional or entry-level clinical Doctorate degrees will be considered.

Responsibilities:

Teaching and coordination of occupational therapy courses/fieldwork, as well as academic advising, committee work, service, and scholarly pursuits.
