Occupational Therapy Faculty

Are you looking to join a talented team of faculty that is committed to providing teaching and learning experiences using best practices and contributing to the profession through service and scholarship? If so, you might be a perfect fit for our OT Faculty position. Our new entry-level Occupational Therapy Doctorate Program has a comprehensive curriculum design congruent with the Mercy Mission.

Our Ideal Candidate Is Someone Who:

- Is an innovative, collaborative, student-centered professional who wants to join excellent faculty dedicated to occupational therapy education.
- Desires to serve students from diverse backgrounds.

Our Ideal Candidate's Education and Experience:

- At least three years paid clinical experience.
- Must be currently licensed or eligible for licensure as an occupational therapist in Nebraska.
- EdD, PhD, or post professional doctorates required.
- Open to various clinical experiences and backgrounds.

This Position Is Responsible For:

- Teaching and coordination of occupational therapy courses, as well as academic advising, committee work, service, and scholarly pursuits.

Why You Want to Be on This Team:

- You would be part of a mission-centered team who works together to serve our community and shape the future of the nursing profession.
- You would enjoy full-time benefits including health insurance, paid time off, tuition remission programs, 403(b) with employer match, employee wellness time, and more!
- CSM is committed to supporting the work-life balance of its faculty and staff.

Application:

CSM is committed to building a diverse educational environment. During the application process, please be prepared to upload a letter of application, current curriculum vitae, statement of teaching philosophy (including information on ways in which your inclusive pedagogy contributes to building and supporting diverse communities), and current contact information for three professional references.
