Physician Assistant (PA) Faculty

Are you a positive, energetic, and caring healthcare professional ready to educate our future Physician Assistants? If so, you might be a perfect fit for our Physician Assistant Faculty position.

Our Ideal Candidate Is Someone Who:

- Is familiar with PA education and desires to serve students from diverse backgrounds.
- Works well within a team environment.

Our Ideal Candidate's Education and Experience:

- Physician Assistant with a master's degree or higher from an accredited academic institution with at least five years of clinical practice experience.
- Current NCCPA certification and licensed or eligible for licensure in the state of Nebraska by time of appointment.
- Previous experience teaching in a PA program or precepting PA students.

This Position Is Responsible For:

- Developing and guiding the curriculum for PA didactic and clinical students.
- Preparing and delivering current content based upon ARC-PA standards and the NCCPA blueprint for the PANCE.
- Advising and evaluating PA students throughout the program.
- Participating in the program's ongoing self-study, accreditation, and continuous improvement processes.
- Participating in admission, progression, and curriculum committees.

Why You Want to Be on This Team:

- You would be a part of a Mission-centered team.
- You would enjoy full-time benefits including health insurance, paid time off, tuition remission programs, 403(b) with employer match, employee wellness time, and more!
- CSM is committed to supporting the work-life balance of its faculty and staff.

Application:

CSM is committed to building a diverse educational environment. During the application process, please be prepared to upload a letter of application, current curriculum vitae, statement of teaching philosophy (including information on ways in which your inclusive pedagogy contributes to building and supporting diverse communities), and current contact information for three professional references.
